Two-base hits—McConnell, Knight, Cree, and Tannehill. Chase. Three-base hit—McConnell. Sacrifice hits—Lord, Knight,weeney, McIntyre. Stolen bases—Callahan, Miller, Cree. Double plays—Chase (unassisted); Lord (unassisted). Left on bases—New York 11; Chicago, 7. First base on errors—New York 1; Chicago, 2. Hits—Owens, 10; in 1-3 inning; off Young, 6 in 2-3 of putting it. It certainly was not lost because of errors. Richmond, just as in the game Friday, had a lead of four runs, ordinarily enough to win a game. The trouble, if one must continue explaining, appears to be that the local scavengers have not the staying power to go the whole route. Jobson did fine for four innings, but Joe the As it was, nobody did, and the b dropped safe.

Priest was spiked by Schrader in the ninth inning of the first game, and may be out for several days.

Poor place of base running was led, 2 in 12-3 innings; off White, 0 in 1-3 innings; off Quinn, 11 in 5-13 innings; off Fisher, 3 in 1-34 innings. First base on balls: off Howik, 2; off Young, 1; off Scott, 1; off isher, 3; by Scott, 2; by Olmstead, 1; by Asher, 1. Passed ball—Payne. Time of game, 2:30. Umpires, Perrins and Mullen.

Pertinent Comment
 BY GUS MALBERT

By playing consistent baseball, taking advantage of every opportunity offered to lose, the Colts are now with-striking distance of last place. Carrying out the playing policy which has recently been inaugurated, the fans will be delighted to know that the ball toward which the locals have been energetically working all season will soon be reached.

Long and loudly we have been proclaiming the fact that Richmond has the best team in the league; kindness has moved us to credit continual errors, not to the superiority of the other teams, but to bad luck pursuing Richmond. We have blamed it on the umpires, and sometimes we have blamed it on the umpire, until now the fault has been reached when it is blamed hard to blame it on anybody anything. George Cowan is surely working hard. He sticks to his fort like a Trojan, but the other teams are playing rings around the Colts, and we have been touting these selfsame Colts as pennant possibilities.

This car's popularity has compelled us to have them ordered by express, because freight was too slow. We couldn't get them by mail; the government will not accept them.

We have some coming by "Night Letter." If you want to be an automobile owner that will say, "I like it better every time I use it," own a Hupp.
